

Los Angeles Pierce College
Bookstore & Student Service Center

Higher Education

- K-12 Schools
- Athletic Facilities
- Child Development
- Technical
- Office/Commercial
- Religious
- Housing

TDM provided Architectural & Engineering services for a new 29,000 SF Student Services Building completed in 2003. The work included Schematic Design, Design Development, Working Drawings, Bidding & Negotiation and Construction Observation. This new building also included a bookstore for Pierce College and a Cyber Café for coffee and surfing the internet. The new center replaced the original building which was damaged during the Northridge Earthquake.

Client:
Los Angeles Community College District

Location:
Woodland Hills, CA

Size:
29,000 SF

Cost:
$5.950,000

Completed:
March 2003

